Common fonts to all versions of Windows & Mac equivalents

Here you can find the list with the standard set of fonts common to all versions of Windows and their Mac substitutes, referred sometimes as "browser safe fonts". Knowing what fonts can you use in a web page is essential for a web designer.

Notes:

- The names in grey are the generic family of each font.
- In some cases the Mac equivalent is the same font, since Mac OS X includes some of the fonts shipped with Windows.
